The Hispanic Heritage Awards were established in 1987 by President Ronald Reagan to commemorate the creation of Hispanic Heritage Month in America. Since that time, the Hispanic Heritage Awards are considered among the highest honors for Hispanics by Hispanics. The Awards are unique in that celebrities take the stage with educators, innovators, community and business leaders, elected officials, among others. The Awards are supported by nearly 40 national Hispanic-serving institutions who co-host the program. Past Honorees have included Juan Luis Guerra, Rita Moreno, Placido Domingo, Celia Cruz, Antonio Banderas, Tito Puente, Anthony Quinn, Carlos Gutierrez, Juan Marichal, Los Tigres Del Norte, Jose Feliciano, Isabel Allende, Alejandro Sanz, Oscar de la Hoya, America Ferrera, Gloria Estefan, Martin Sheen, Oscar de la Renta, Andy Garcia, Carlos Vives, Juanes, and Zoe Saldana, among many others.

The Hispanic Heritage Awards are produced by Nouveau Productions, INGENUITY and the Hispanic Heritage Foundation.

The Hispanic Heritage Awards serve as a launch of HHF's award-winning, year-round programs which inspire, identify, prepare and position Latino leaders in the classroom, community and workforce to meet America's priorities in the STEM, finance, education, media, and innovation fields. HHF is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
