Washington, DC – Jon Campos and the Incurables are nothing short of pure talent. Their newest single written by Jon Campos, Tragic Tales & Lullabies music video has been nominated at the San Diego Film Awards for Best Music Video, which will air live on CW6 on April 3rd.

This Alternative Rock group is labeled with Wicked Tone Records. Comprised of Jon Campos - Vocals & Guitar, Drew Gino Zollo - Bass Guitar, and James Raub – Drums; this group has an amazing sound. Campos has been inspired by the bands Rival Sons and Royal Blood. He describes his mother and new found love as his lyric inspiration for Tragic Tales & Lullabies.

Currently, the song is charting at #12 in the U.S. in the Alternative Rock Category, and #16 worldwide out of 4000 bands on ReverbNation.
