

Dancing in My Cockroach Killers A Sassy Off-Broadway Puerto Rican Musical

Entertainment 2018-06-02 21:21:38

Washington, DC - GALA proudly concludes its 42nd season with the DC premiere of Dancing In My Cockroach Killers, a bilingual musical with texts by award-winning Magdalena Gómez, music by Desmar Guevara, and conceived and directed by Rosalba Rolón. A co-production by GALA Theatre and Pregones Theater/PRTT of New York, Dancing In My Cockroach Killers will run June 7 through July 1, 2018 at GALA Theatre, 3333 14th Street NW, Washington, DC 20010. Parking is available at a discounted rate in the Giant garage on Park Road, NW.

Dancing In My Cockroach Killers is an explosive mix of texts and music that delivers the full range of Gómez's rhythmic realism, boundless hope, and rollicking humor. Facing real life challenges with courage and flair, her characters are inspired by family, friends, and Latino icons as varied as Lolita Lebrón, Joe Cuba, and Iris Chacón. From its no-nonsense Why I Lost the Popularity Contest, to the heart stopping Fuego en la cocina, to the funny and rousing Madre de bomba, Dancing In My Cockroach Killers will have you dancing and finger-snapping in self-recognition.

Dancing In My Cockroach Killers will be performed in English and Spanish, Thursdays through Saturdays at 8 pm, and Sundays at 2 pm. The Noche de GALA and Press Night is Saturday, June 9, 2018 at 8 pm, This production is made possible in part with generous support from the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities.

ABOUT THE PLAYWRIGHT/POET

Magdalena Gómez is a playwright, poet, essayist, and co-founder and Artistic Director of Teatro V!da in Springfield, MA. Her most recent play, ERASED: a poetic imagining of the life of Arturo Alfonso Schomburg, is a finalist (as of this writing) in the national Latinx Theater Commons competition, and Perfectamente Loca/Perfectly Insane was a winner in 2015. Ms. Gómez's poetry collection, Shameless Woman, was published in 2014 by Red Sugarcane Press, NYC, and is included in Latin@ studies syllabi throughout the U.S. Her poems, essays and plays have also been published by the Massachusetts Review; University of Illinois Press; Callaloo; Los Angeles Times; Ollantay Theater Journal; and Skyhorse Publishing, among many others. She received a 2018 New England Public Radio's Arts and Humanity Award, and in 2010 was named a National Endowment for the Arts Master Artist by Pregones/PRTT, where she has been a collaborator ever since. ABOUT THE PRODUCTION
