Ana María Fernández Haar will serve as Mistress of Ceremonies during the awards luncheon. Immediate Past Chair of the New American Alliance (NAA) Institute-- an American Latino Business Initiative-- and current Board Member of NAA and World Trade Center Miami, Ana Maria is committed to the advancement of a new generation of Latino/Hispanic leaders engaged in education, finance, public service and philanthropy by amalgamating, galvanizing and deploying Latino assets for the benefit of our country. She is a motivational speaker and coach to Latinos through her weekly radio show on Univision Radio/South Florida, El Arte del Triunfo/The Art of Success and through a live seminar series based on the program.

During the luncheon, LATINA Style will present two coveted awards. The "Advocate of the Year" award will be presented to Maria Marin. Marín, one of the 25 most powerful women selected by People "en Español," is the leader and inspirational role model for Latinos in the areas of personal growth, love and success. Her message reaches millions through her nationally syndicated radio shows with Univision Radio, best-selling books, weekly newspaper columns, international seminars, network television appearances, YouTube channel, and social media engagement. "It is with the utmost humility that I receive this award. Thank you, LATINA Style, for recognizing my continuous efforts as an advocate for women pursuing more happiness and success in their lives, said Maria Marin."

The "Entrepreneur of the Year" award for Miami will be presented to Olga Ramudo, president & CEO of Express Travel. After years of being a stay at home mother, Ramudo decided to venture into the travel business by becoming an independent contractor for a small travel agency. Partnering with her sister and a best friend, that part time job took them further when they decided to start their own business in 1989. Specializing in the Hispanic market and with a strong commitment to community involvement and customer service, Express Travel became one of the top ten travel agencies in Miami, later expanding its reach to the State of Florida as well as offering services all over the world. Today, Express Travel has received numerous awards and recognitions throughout the years, including one of the largest and fastest growing Hispanic companies in the nation, and one of the largest women owned business in the State of Florida. "I am so honored to have been selected as "LATINA Style Entrepreneur of the Year." Being recognized as a woman business owner, means a lot. But, being recognized as a Latina woman business owner means even more!" said Ramudo. "I am proud to share this recognition with all Latinas that struggle every day to balance professional and personal lives."
