

Crónica de una muerte anunciada / Chronicle of a Death Foretold

Culture 2016-03-17 05:52:52

Washington, D.C. – GALA proudly continues its 40th Anniversary Season ¡Viva los 40! with the DC premiere of Crónica de una muerte anunciada/Chronicle of a Death Foretold, based on the internationally acclaimed novella by award-winning author Gabriel García Márquez. Adapted by Jorge Alí Triana from Bogotá, Colombia, Crónica de una muerte anunciada is directed by José Zayas, who directed the acclaimed La casa de los espíritus/House of the Spirits, and runs April 7 through May 8, 2016 at GALA Theatre, 3333 14th Street NW, Washington, DC 20010. Parking is available at a discounted rate in the Giant garage on Park Road, NW. Additional parking is available at the Target garage also on Park Road, between 14th and 16th Streets.

Based on a true story, this tightly woven tale of a small town in Colombia unfolds against a conspiracy of silence, revenge, and strict moral codes that lead to tragedy. After marrying against her will, Angela is returned to her mother when the angry new husband discovers that is not a virgin. Forced to name the man who deflowered her, Angela's brothers undertake a murderous mission.

Crónica de una muerte anunciada is performed in Spanish with English surtitles, Thursdays through Saturdays at 8 pm, and Sundays at 2 pm. The Noche de GALA and Press Night is Saturday, April 9, 2016 at 8 pm, under the gracious patronage of His Excellency Mr. Juan Carlos Pinzón, Ambassador of Colombia to the United States.

Matinee performances for students are scheduled for April 14, April 15, April 22, April 27 and April 28 at 10:30 am. For more information about GALA's Student Matinee Program, please call (202) 234-7174.

This production is made possible in part with generous support from the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities, the Embassy of Colombia, and Chafica M. Kappaz and William Kappaz.

ABOUT GABRIEL GARCÍA MÁRQUEZ

Gabriel García Márquez was a Colombian novelist, journalist, publisher, and political activist who was often considered the most famous writer of magical realism in Latin American literature. He began his career as a reporter for the Colombian daily El Espectador, and later worked as a foreign correspondent in Rome, Paris, Barcelona, Caracas, and New York City. His first major work was The Story of a Shipwrecked Sailor ("Relato de un naufrago"), which he wrote as a newspaper series in 1955. Several of his works have been classified as both fiction and non-fiction, notably Chronicle of a Death Foretold (1981); Love in the Time of Cholera ("El amor en los tiempos del cólera") (1985); and One Hundred Years of Solitude ("Cien años de soledad") (1967; English translation by Gregory Rabassa 1970), which has sold more than ten million copies. García Márquez was awarded the 1972 Neustadt International Prize for Literature, and the 1982 Nobel Prize for Literature. He died on April 17, 2014 in Mexico City at the age of 87.
