

U.S. ARMY RECOGNIZES CONTRIBUTIONS OF HISPANIC HERITAGE FOUNDATION ALONG WITH HISPANIC SOLDIERS AND OTHER COMMUNITY LEADERS

Community 2011-10-25 17:28:14

Washington, DC – The U.S. Army honored Antonio Tijerino and the Hispanic soldiers and leaders from some of the nation's foremost Hispanic advocacy organizations. Soldiers and civilian leaders will be recognized for their selfless service and contributions to the nation.

The ceremony's guest of honor, Under Secretary of the U.S. Army, Dr. Joseph Westphal, will join other Army representatives in recognizing these soldiers and civilian leaders.

Recognized soldiers and civilian leaders will include:

- Λτ. Χολ. Δαβιδ θ. Ψεβρα, Υ.Σ. Αρμψ Χαδετ Χομμανδ Προφεςσορ οφ Μιλιταρψ Σχιενχε οφ τηε Ψεαρ
- Σταφφ Σγτ. Βεατριζ Φλορεσ–Τορρεσ, Ποτομαχ Ρεχρυτινγ Βατταλιον
- Βρεντ Ωιλκεσ, ναπιοναλ εξεχυτιβε διρεχτορ, Λεαγυε οφ Υνιτεδ Λατιν Αμεριχαν Χιτιζενσ
- Αντονιο Τιφερينو, πρεσιδεντ ανδ ΧΕΟ, Ηισπανιχ Ηεριταγε Φουνδατιον
- Δουγλασ Γαρχια, εξεχυτιβε διρεχτορ οφ φεδεραλ ρελατιονσ, Ηισπανιχ Ασσοχιατιον οφ Χολλεγεσ ανδ Υνιϋερσιτιεσ

About the United States Army Accessions Command (USAAC)

The U.S. Army Accessions Command (USAAC), a subordinate command of U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command, meets the human resource needs of the Army by transforming volunteers into officers, warrant officers, and enlisted Soldiers. In providing the force, the 18,400 men and women of Accessions Command prepare these future Soldiers and leaders for their initial military training. Commanded by Lt. Gen. Benjamin C. Freakley, USAAC is located at Fort Knox, Ky.

WHAT : U.S. ARMY RECOGNIZES CONTRIBUTIONS OF HISPANIC HERITAGE FOUNDATION
ALONG WITH HISPANIC SOLDIERS AND OTHER COMMUNITY LEADERS

WHEN : 2011-10-25 17:28:14

WHERE :

CONTACT:

Ayona Anderson

Phone: 2147256716

E-mail: aanderson@theaxisagency.com

