

GALA HISPANIC THEATRE: Theater with a Different Accent

Entertainment 2016-06-21 10:24:28

Washington, D.C. — Co-founder and Producing Artistic Director Hugo Medrano proudly announces GALA Hispanic Theatre's 2016-2017 Season. "As we enter our fifth decade," states Medrano, "we will continue to stage the breadth and excellence of the Latino performing arts as we seek to reflect the community and its evolution. The stories told on our stage this season will be rooted in the challenges, aspirations, and history of Latinos here and from Spain, the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Puerto Rico, Mexico, and Colombia---each with a different accent but universal in their humanity. These presentations will explore classic tales in contemporary settings, premiere new works, and entertain with shared stories told through theater, dance, film, music, comedy, and theater for young audiences."

The new season will open with the world premiere of Cervantes: El último Quijote/The Last Quixote by Jordi Casanovas, directed by José Luis Arellano from Spain, winner of the 2016 Helen Hayes Award for Outstanding Director who will be working with the same Helen Hayes Award winning design team. The second production is the modern Mexican masterpiece Yo también hablo de la rosa/I Too Speak of the Rose by Emilio Carballido directed by Hugo Medrano. The third season production is the U.S. premiere in Spanish of In the Heights, the Tony Award winning musical by Pulitzer Prize recipient Lin-Manuel Miranda and directed by Luis Salgado, who is appearing in On Your Feet on Broadway.

GALA's innovative ArteAmerica presenting series includes the rollicking DC premiere of Miss Cuarenta by Colombian Paula Arcila; Reel Time at GALA, the fifth annual film festival featuring films from Mexico, Argentina and El Salvador; the 12th annual Fuego Flamenco Festival featuring a world premiere by DC's own Flamenco Aparicio Dance Company, led by the curator of the festival Edwin Aparicio, followed by the U.S. premiere of the fiery Francisco Hidalgo and Company of Madrid's

Fundación Conservatorio Flamenco Casa Patas; Canto General Siglo XXI, a chamber cantata by Chilean Miguel Córdova; Hecho en Puelto Rico, written and performed by Ángel Vázquez from Puerto Rico; and Teatro Luis Poma from El Salvador with Baby Boom en el Paraíso performed by Regina Cañas.

GALA's theater for young audiences, GALita, will introduce children to the magic of bilingual theater with Volcanes: Cuentos de El Salvador/Volcanoes: Tales of El Salvador by Cornelia Cody in fall 2016, a world premiere commissioned by GALA. In spring 2017, GALita will present a new staging of Séneca: Ratón de biblioteca/The Library Mouse by Jorge Díaz (Chile), directed by Cecilia Cackley.

MAIN STAGE SEASON PRODUCTIONS

CERVANTES: EL ÚLTIMO QUIJOTE World Premiere!

THE LAST QUIXOTE

By Jordi Casanovas (Spain)

Directed by José Luis Arellano

September 8 - October 2, 2016

In Spanish with English surtitles

Student Matinees: September 21, September 22, September 23, September 28, September 29 and September 30 at 10:30 am.

Cervantes has died in the street and a drunk insists that the man who killed him is the renowned poet Lope de Vega. This same man recounts the secrets Cervantes shared with him, revealing the most tempestuous periods in the great writer's life and the furious creativity of his final years.

José Luis Arellano is a theater, opera and television director from Spain, who in previous seasons directed Yerma, Caballero de Olmedo, ¡Ay, Carmela!, and Cabaret Barroco at GALA. He received the 2016 Helen Hayes Award for Outstanding Director for his staging of Yerma, and will work again with 2016 Helen Hayes Award winners Silvia de Marta, Outstanding Set Design, and Christopher Annas-Lee, Outstanding Lighting Design, also for Yerma.

This production is supported by the National Endowment for the Arts, Embassy of Spain in Washington, D.C., SPAIN arts & culture, and Acción Cultural Española/PICE.

YO TAMBIÉN HABLO DE LA ROSA/ TOO SPEAK OF THE ROSE U.S. Premiere!

By Emilio Carbadillo (Mexico)

Directed by Hugo Medrano

February 2 - 26, 2017

In Spanish with English surtitles

Student Matinees: February 9, February 10, February 16, and February 17 at 10:30 am.

Set in Mexico City in the 1960s, teenagers Toña and Polo accidentally derail a train while playing hooky from school. The details of what happened and the punishment they should face are as different as the spectators who witnessed the event. This searing look at poverty and society's response to it has become a masterpiece of modern Mexican theatre.

Hugo Medrano is the co-founder and Artistic Producing Director of GALA Hispanic Theatre, and has directed and performed in classical and contemporary plays in Argentina, Spain, Costa Rica, Venezuela, Cuba, El Salvador, New York, Miami, and Washington, DC. He was nominated for a 2000 Helen Hayes Award for his direction of La dama boba by Lope de Vega, received a Helen Hayes Award nomination for his performance in El Protagonista, and received the 1994 Helen Hayes Award for Outstanding Lead Actor for his role as Molina in El beso de la mujer araña.
